

One 77 Mortgages Slavery and Anti Human Trafficking Statement

Introduction

This statement sets out One 77 Mortgages actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to its business and to put in place steps that are aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in its own business and its supply chains.

As a responsible employer operating in the Financial Services sector, the Company recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to slavery and human trafficking. The Company is absolutely committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities, and to ensuring that its supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking.

Organisational structure and supply chains

One 77 Mortgages was first established in 2010. The company has quickly grown to provide expert mortgage and protection advice.

One 77 Mortgages is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

It is the Company's policy to maintain a strong corporate culture and identity, attracting quality customers and staff, building long-term value into the business. The Company is committed to providing the highest quality of thoroughly researched property finance and protection advice, which is professional, efficient and user friendly. We aim to translate complex financial issues into customer friendly language.

The Company currently has 1 office in Chippenham.

Our supply chains are mainly in respect of recruitment, the procurement of office supplies, materials and equipment, and the provision of professional and support services, principally in relation to IT, facilities, finance, human resources and marketing. We seek to engage with suppliers who are reputable and who are demonstrating compliance with modern slavery legislation. In terms of HR procedures, we have rigorous identity and background checking in place and work with carefully selected and reputable third parties to source candidates. Once in employment, we encourage a culture of speaking up about any concerns. Key policies include:

- Anti Bribery and Corruption policy
- Whistleblowing policy
- Equal opportunities and anti harassment policy
- Grievance policy
- Health and Safety policy

This statement has been approved by the company's board of directors, who will review and update it annually. The firm will continue to monitor supplier relationships and introduce further enhancements to our policies in our drive to combat modern slavery.
